Several top musicians from around the world have already made the trek to Mission Woods, Kansas to perform in the 1900 Performance Space. The state of the art environment has included the acclaimed Behzod Abduraimov, who stated that the space felt to him, “Like playing at home.” The Parkway Room is host to many wonderful events from concerts to charity galas, while the stunning Rose Hall is not only live performance specific, but is set and can double as a modern recording studio. The prime walnut flooring, travertine stone walls, and elaborate acoustical wall design in Rose Hall lead you to The Fountain Room, which sits adjacent the fountain patio providing views facing State Line Road and Shawnee Mission Parkway leading to Mission Hills.
